PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

This highly interactive blended programme is designed to increase the performance of Team Leaders & Supervisors and develop the core skills necessary to transition from working in a team to leading a team.

The programme also provides practising Team Leaders/Supervisors with an opportunity to further develop their skills to become more effective, efficient and confident in their role.

Working alongside people from other businesses, delegates will have an opportunity to share experiences, practice new skills, receive feedback and create personal development plans to enable them to become highly effective Team Leaders.

Our programmes are delivered by ILM specialists, highly experienced in the field of Management and Leadership development. The facilitators ensure that the workshop learning experience is highly engaging and one that encourages group participation.

Delegates will also have access to relevant and current case studies, participating in group exercises and access to a wide breadth of online learning and library resources, this programme is delivered to reflect a true blended learning experience that will support achievement of an ILM level 2 qualification in Leadership and Team Skills.
