PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

This programme is ideal for middle/senior managers, including those new to or aspiring to a senior role.

Each topic focuses on developing specific skills and knowledge in key areas including; personal impact and leadership styles, working with and managing people performance, managing yourself and developing others whilst providing direction. The programme has been developed to work towards a fully Accredited Level 4 Award in Leadership & Management.

This highly interactive four-day programme, coupled with a range of distance learning materials and resources, focuses on practical everyday business examples.

The programme will provide delegates with a thorough grounding in Managing & Leading People and Performance.

Working with other managers, participants will get to share experiences, practise new skills and gain feedback in a safe environment.

Delivered and facilitated in a highly engaging manner, maximising the value of classroom workshops, utilising relevant case studies, practical exercises and distance learning/multimedia resources to build a true blended learning experience.
